

I strongly oppose the weakening of Indiana's telephone privacy law. Since the law's institution, my number of uninvited sales calls has decreased dramatically. Please, PLEASE listen to the consumers who don't want their lives interrupted by all these calls. I feel that it's a direct invasion of my privacy. Thanks for your consideration.

~Amanda L. Geiger